

»The Search for Love or Around the World on a Bicycle«, »Shambala – on a Bicycle to Tibet«, »Lonely Paths«, »Mana, on a Bicycle among Indians«, »Nuba, the Pure People«

“In the winter of 2006 , after successfully lobbying for the Nuba people, the then Slovenian president Janez Drnovsek appointed me his special emissary for Darfur.”

• • •

Left and right leg allow walking, left and right hand working, left and right wing flying. Left and right eye allow for a depth perception, left and right ear allow for stereo hearing, a man and a woman united create a child and two continents allow one to understand more...

In the last forty years, precipitation in the Sahel has diminished by thirty percent. The Sahara is spreading at a speed of seven kilometres per year. Fifty million natives can no longer survive with their traditional manual labour.

Wars for water among native peoples and tribes are used by powerful foreign forces in their war for oil and other resources.

Africans are the cheapest soldiers.

Death is free in Africa.

The most effective assistance for the innocent victims living on the altar of the world are miniature video cameras and satellite connections that can help women and children scream for help. And drilling equipment to enable the search for water so the local people can tap into the largest underground lake of drinking water on the planet.

Tomo Križnar

oil and water

Tomo Križnar
Oil and water

»Blood is not water. Blood is thicker than water. But oil is thicker blood.«

»Those were difficult times for the Nuba people. I would go with left wing and the right, with communists and the Vatican. I would go with Satan himself if it would make any difference. Leni Riefenstahl was only the last in the long line of weighty people through whom I have tried to stop the extermination of the most innocent.«

ISBN 978-961-90034-7-3

9 789619 003473